

John Walker – Associate Consultant

Expertise

Governance, regulatory issues, strategy development, business planning, transformation programmes, policy development, research.

About

John is an experienced senior housing professional currently working as Interim Head of Strategy and Planning at the Riverside Group. John is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of housing with over 25 year experience in a number of different roles including at Director level in a major housing association. John's expertise includes governance review against RSH regulatory standards, board and executive support, policy development and influence, business strategy, business improvement, managing strategic and transformational multi-disciplinary change projects, group business planning and research programmes.

Altair Assignments

John will be considered for a range of Altair assignments including governance and regulatory issues, strategy, transformation programmes, policy development and research.

Background

Gentoo Group - Director of Strategy, Policy and Research

Home Group – Corporate Policy Officer

Derwent Housing – Community Development Officer

Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Housing

