

Darren Hartley – Director

Expertise

Governance and regulation; company secretarial; strategy; risk management; corporate performance management; project and programme management; mergers and acquisitions; tenant engagement and empowerment.

About

Darren is a governance, regulation and company secretary specialist. He has advised Boards on strategy development, governance and compliance, performance management, and internal controls assurance. In addition to his decade of senior management experience for housing associations, he is also experienced in charity and care sector operating environments.

Outside of work, Darren spends a lot of his time running after his toddler son, or the slightly easier challenge of training for and competing in ultra endurance multi-day running and mountain bike races.

Altair Assignments

Recent project work that Darren has been involved in include:

- Governance reviews for housing associations
- Merger and acquisition advice and support for a national specialist housing association
- Company secretary advice and support for housing associations and charities
- CQC regulation and inspection support
