

Jenny Brown – Director

Expertise

Providing governance and culture support and training to boards and non-finance executives, coaching and people development, risk management and assurance, financial compliance, accounting.

About

Following 20 years as an auditor, focussing on not for profit organisations, Jenny now works on a variety of projects all with a focus on people and behaviours, including working with Boards and Executive teams to create high performing and compliant teams. Jenny is a Board member and also an accredited coach, qualified coach supervisor and an experienced facilitator.

Altair Assignments

Recent projects that Jenny has been involved in include:

- Reports on Governance best practice including a focus on the Role of Company Secretary
- Coach for the Cranfield EMBA programme
- Board workshops on Governance comparing National Housing Federation to Corporate Code
- Finance function reviews for best structure and best practice
- Assessment of appropriate reporting and regulatory structure for quasi charities and housing organisations
- Audit of not for profit organisations including education, charities, central government and a range of housing associations
- Founder member of Diversity and Inclusion Panel for Grant Thornton UK LLP

Background

- Grant Thornton UK LLP– Assurance Director, Chief Operating Officer Not for Profit Group, Head of Housing
- Sheffield Hallam University Audit Committee Member 2006-2014
- Arhag Housing - Board Member, Vice Chair, Chair of Audit Committee 2014-2018
- Housing SORP working party member to 2018
- ICAEW Housing Technical Subcommittee member to 2018
- Accredited coach
- IBS Network - Trustee

Non- Executive Appointments

- Longhurst Group - Board Member, Chair of Audit and Risk Committee

