

Patrick Goldie – Graduate Consultant

Expertise

Policy research and development; qualitative data analysis; report-writing.

About

Patrick's interest in affordable housing was sparked by his recent experience working as a Governance and Public Relations Officer for a homelessness charity based in his hometown, Aberdeen.

Prior to this, he spent five years abroad in Spain and Italy, during which time he improved his intercultural communication skills and adapted to variety of working environments.

Background

Governance and Public Relations Officer – FRESH
Community Wellness

Laurea Magistrale (Master's) in International Affairs,
110/110 with merit – University of Bologna

MA (Hons) in History, First – University of Glasgow

